Beaver Creek, CO:

Beaver Creek boasts the ambiance of a modern resort coupled with the unhurried feel of an alpine village. World-class skiing and amenities, golf, and drop-dead gorgeous Rocky Mountain views make this town in the Vail Valley the ideal place for a serene getaway.

The activity doesn't stop when the snow stops falling. During the beautiful green summer months, guests can explore the beauty of the natural environment and native wildlife on foot or bike via expansive trail systems, take a scenic chairlift ride with spectacular views or do a Top of the Mountain

Tour, enjoy summer concerts and festivals, or tee off at one of the three championship golf courses located in the Beaver Creek Valley.

The Residence:

A cozy mountain home with comfortable decor and a beautifully updated kitchen and bath is exactly what you need on your next Beaver Creek mountain vacation. Located conveniently along the fairways of Beaver Creek Golf course and a short distance to Avon town center, Beaver Creek is quickly becoming one of the top summer destinations in the US.
