Behold the captivating beauty of an ancient biblical Unguentarium pottery, curated from Bruce's personal antiquities collection. Standing at a height of 12 cm, this exquisite artifact transports us back to the Hellenistic period, around 330 BCE, a time of cultural richness and artistic mastery. With its graceful curves and intricate craftsmanship, this Unguentarium invites us to imagine the hands that held it, the scents it once contained, and the stories it silently whispers from a distant era.
