A $50 gift card generously donated by The Plot restaurant. The Plot is an award winning restaurant and catering concept founded in oceanside, California by husband and wife duo Davin and Jessica Waite. They make delicious, satisfying and sometimes boundary-pushing food that is completely plant-based, while embracing zero waste practices. They celebrate the freshest local produce, much coming from our own organic regenerative gardens. They are a conscientious business with operations that benefit our team, the health of our communities, and the future of our planet.
