

Kyoto Calm

Starting Bid $2,400.00

Retail Value $4,100.00

2 Available

1 Bedroom | 1 Bath | 4 Nights

Embrace the calmer side of Kyoto with a tranquil city retreat to a Taisho-era house in Okazaki and an intimate sake tasting for two.

Fall under the spell of Kyoto with a couple's getaway to a restored Taisho-era house in the trendy neighborhood of Okazaki.

Zen out in your private garden before exploring temples and shrines just a short walk away.

Savor the subtle notes of quintessential Japanese beverage sake on a guided tasting for two.

Bordered by mountain landscapes reminiscent of fairytales, Kyoto's allure lies in its omnipresent history and city steeped in culture. Discover time-honored architecture, age-old traditions, and UNESCO World Heritage Sites on your doorstep with a retreat to a beautiful Taisho-era house with an intimate sake tasting for two.

Away from the bustle of the city center, your meticulously renovated Taisho-era home is the perfect base for exploring Kyoto at your own pace. A spacious dining area, fully-equipped kitchen, and living room showcase authentic Japanese design. Recharge in a Western-inspired Queen bedroom with its own sleek bathroom.

Seek sanctuary in the city in your peaceful private garden, the perfect place to savor morning matcha immersed in the tranquility of nature and serene Japanese architecture. Sample the delicate notes of sake, a unique rice-infused Japanese alcohol, on an expert-guided tasting for two.

Live like a local in Kyoto's trendy Okazaki neighborhood with Okazaki Shrine, Eikando Temple, and the Philosopher's Path in easy reach. Traverse the city with Higashi Tennocho bus station 5 minutes away. Lined with countless restaurants, Kiyamachi-dori and Pontocho's culinary delights await 10 minutes away.

Get to know Kyoto

Steeped in centuries of tradition, Kyoto embodies rich Japanese culture through the ages. Lined with tranquil tea houses and temples, its narrow streets are home to a quarter of Japan's national treasures and 17 UNESCO World Heritage sites alone, all set beneath the majestic shadow of Mount Hiei.

Your Kyoto experience includes 4 nights for up to 2 guests in a meticulously restored Taisho-era house in the city's leafy Okazaki neighborhood.

- Find sanctuary in the city with a private garden and serene Taisho-inspired interiors
- Experience authentic traditions with an intimate sake tasting for two included
- Discover culture on your doorstep with temples and shrines in walking distance
- Explore culinary treasure troves Kiyamachi-dori and Pontocho 10 minutes away
- Benefit from Premium Guest Services for trip planning