

Repurpose Your Jewelry Course

Starting Bid $125.00

Retail Value $399.00

Donated by Virginia Nonaca Chavez

Enjoy a private lesson with a renowned jewelry artisan, Virginia Nonaca Chavez. Bring in those jewelry pieces you no longer wear and re-create them into masterpieces. This hands-on private class for 4 of your closest friends will fun and allow you explore your creativity.

You will learn about the basic tools and material needed to turn your worn-out jewelry into wearable jewelry pieces. Virginia will supply all the tools and beads for you and your friends to create one-of-a-kind pieces. The course will be taught in person in an intimate setting located in Orange County, California

About Virginia Nonaca Chavez

Virginia is a skilled artisan with decades of experience in teaching creative arts. She is skilled in lapidary, silver smiting, and hand beading. She enjoys the creative process and looks forward to supporting you in your journey into the world of jewelry design.

