Dordogne Dreaming | South of France
4 Bedroom | 3 Bath | 7-Nights

Live the timeless romance of Southwest France with a stay in one of two picturesque villas paired with an in-house wine tasting.

Drift into a dream of Southwest France with a 7-night stay for eight guests in one of two idyllic farmhouse villas in Dordogne.

Embrace the art de vivre with a glass of wine on the stone terrace or a soak in the heated waters of the private pool.

Savor the delicacies of the Bergerac region with an in-villa wine tasting accompanied by cheese and charcuterie.

Few places in the world inspire more timeless romance than a villa in Southern France. Nestled in the Périgourdine countryside, your home's aged stone and exposed wood beams will transport you to a dream of days gone by. Embrace authentic French living while enjoying contemporary luxuries, such as a private heated pool.

Your villa is tastefully arranged in a French country style, from rustic warm detailing to classic yet contemporary furnishings. Four elegant bedrooms offer a cozy place to unwind, featuring convertible King/Twin or Queen beds, private or shared bathrooms, and breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside.

Outside, you're surrounded by lush gardens and a beautiful, wooded park. Embrace the French art de vivre as you unwind in the heated pool or enjoy an alfresco meal. Of course, what would France be without a taste of refinement? Savor the traditions of the region with an included Bergerac wine tasting from your villa.

Less than an hour away, the town of Périgord welcomes you with its majestic cathedral and medieval Old Town. Let your concierge arrange a tour of the area's rich history or take to the countryside to explore the region's famous châteaux, picturesque vineyards, or Lascaux caves.
