

Into The Wild

#47

Starting Bid $3,000.00

Retail Value $5,600.00

2 Available

1 Bedroom | 1 Bath | 3-Nights

Answer the call of the Great American Outdoors with an upscale glamping retreat to your choice of three breathtaking National Parks.

Our Winner's Choice experiences let guests choose from a selection of curated stays. Each experience comes with luxurious accommodation, exclusive amenities, and Premium Guest Services for trip planning, so winners can sit back and relax in their choice of paradise.

Breathtaking Bryce Canyon

Experience the magic of Bryce Canyon National Park with a stay in an upscale glamping tent set in 750 acres of breathtaking high desert plains.

Embrace the great outdoors from the comfort of a deluxe glamping tent minutes from Bryce Canyon National Park.

Indulge with on-site dining, nightly campfires and s'mores, and your own private stargazing deck.

Discover the magic of Utah with a range of add-on activities and excursions, and the National Park just 15 minutes away.

Otherworldly forests of red rock soar 9,000 feet above sea level in Utah's breathtaking Bryce Canyon National Park. Step into a desert retreat like no other at one of Condé Nast's 'Top Resorts in the Mountain West' with a stay in a deluxe glamping tent minutes from Bryce Canyon.

Experience luxury in the heart of nature from your upscale tent surrounded by 750 acres of high-alpine juniper forest. Sleep soundly in an inviting King-sized bed warmed by your tent's wood-burning stove. Indulge in the comforts of home with an en-suite bathroom, walk-in shower, and organic toiletries.

Immerse yourself in sweeping starlit skies from the tranquility of your private deck. One of the first certified DarkSky resorts, you'll find endless opportunities to stargaze. Embrace the spirit of the outdoors with live music and nightly s'mores around the campfire, as well as an array of activities and excursions to add on.

Explore the towering 'hoodoo' spires of Bryce Canyon National Park, just 15 minutes away. Fuel up for outdoor adventures with on-site dining showcasing local produce and seasonally changing menus. Savor high-alpine flavors surrounded by sublime views and majestic untouched wilderness.

Get to know Bryce Canyon

Dominated by its towering crimson rock spires or 'hoodoos', Bryce Canyon National Park promises otherworldly beauty in the Utah desert. Perched 9,000 feet above sea level, this breathtaking region boasts sweeping vistas, unmissable hiking on the Navajo Trail, and some of America's finest stargazing.

- Immerse yourself in the great outdoors amidst 750 acres of high desert plains
- Enjoy the comforts of a King-sized bed, wood-burner, and en-suite bathroom
- Stargaze like never before from your private deck at a certified DarkSky resort
- Gather around the campfire for live music and complimentary s'mores
- Fuel up for outdoor adventure with seasonal menus and on-site dining championing local produce
- Enhance your experience with an array of add-ons from yoga to excursions and kids' activities

- Benefit from Premium Guest Services for trip planning

Lake Powell Wonder

Become spellbound by the American Southwest with a stay in a deluxe glamping tent at Lake Powell promising plentiful outdoor adventures.

Experience the wonder of Utah's Lake Powell with a stay in an upscale glamping tent perched on a canyon rim plateau.

Unwind in nature with a crackling wood-burning stove, King-sized bed, and sweeping views of the night sky from your private deck.

Embrace outdoor adventure with nightly campfires and s'mores, add-on excursions, and Lone Rock Beach just 10 minutes away.

Chase sunsets in the Southwest amidst Lake Powell's wondrous canyon plateaus and midnight-blue waters. A one-of-a-kind glamping getaway beckons from your safari-style tent at the world's first certified DarkSky resort, perched on a canyon rim plateau.

Embrace barefoot luxury in the heart of nature from your deluxe glamping tent. Enjoy all the comforts of home with a lavish King-size bed, en-suite bathroom, and organic toiletries. Cozy up before your tent's wood-burning stove as you savor complimentary nightly s'mores.

Rediscover stargazing at the world's first DarkSky-certified resort on your private deck boasting mesmerizing desert sky views. Refuel and revitalize with seasonal on-site dining options for breakfast and dinner showcasing delicious local produce.

Hike towering mesas, walk with dinosaurs, or unwind in a red rock oasis with optional activity add-ons. Lake Powell's Lone Rock Beach lies just a 10-minute drive from camp, promising crystalline waters and sandy shores amidst untouched natural beauty.

Get to know Lake Powell

Traversing the Utah/Arizona border, Lake Powell is known as 'the most scenic lake in America'. Set against a breathtaking backdrop of Southern Utah's finest red rock desert, hundreds of colorful sandstone side canyons and coves combine to create a paradise for paddleboarding, fishing, photography, and outdoor adventure.

- Become charmed by the American Southwest at a Traveler's Choice 'Hottest New Hotel'

- Recharge for outdoor adventures with a King-sized bed, en-suite bathroom, and cozy wood-burner
- Stargaze from your private deck at the world's first certified DarkSky resort
- Embrace the great outdoors with live music, nightly campfires, and complimentary s'mores
- Sample seasonal menus and local produce with on-site dining for breakfast and dinner
- Enhance your experience with a selection of add-on activities including yoga, tours, and kids' adventures
- Benefit from Premium Guest Services for trip planning

Magnificent Mount Rushmore

Marvel at Mount Rushmore with a retreat to a deluxe glamping tent in South Dakota's Black Hills, perfectly placed for outdoor adventures.

The majesty of Mount Rushmore awaits in a deluxe glamping tent at an award-winning resort in South Dakota's Black Hills.

Discover glamping's upscale side with on-site dining, yoga, live music, and complimentary campfire s'mores.

Embrace outdoor adventure with Custer State Park, the Badlands, and Mount Rushmore National Memorial in driving distance.

Lofty ponderosa pines and scented juniper set the scene at your Mount Rushmore basecamp, nestled in South Dakota's rugged Black Hills. Experience the magic of the great outdoors from your one-of-a-kind glamping retreat, voted Travel + Leisure's 'Best Hotel in The World' two years running.

Rediscover camping VIP style from your upscale safari-style tent, complete with en-suite bathroom, organic toiletries, and crackling wood-burning stove. Answer the call of the wild each morning from the comfort of your cozy King-sized bed overlooking the pines.

Begin the day with morning yoga, followed by a fresh breakfast of premium coffee and seasonal, local dishes served on-site. Unwind amidst the romance of sunset hour on your tent's private deck with lounge chairs and forest views.

Marvel at the majesty of the Mount Rushmore National Memorial less than four miles from camp. Spend days exploring South Dakota's rugged backcountry with the Black Hills and Custer State Park in easy reach. Come home to complimentary s'mores and live music enjoyed around the campfire.

Get to know Mount Rushmore

Natural beauty and American history collide at Mount Rushmore, best known for its awe-inspiring National Memorial. Discover Gutzon Borglum's iconic presidential sculpture from the President's Trail before exploring the surrounding beauty of South Dakota's Black Hills and Badlands.

- Experience an award-winning glamping retreat on an original gold mining settlement
- Embrace the comforts of home with a King-sized bed, wood-burner, and en-suite bathroom
- Immerse yourself in the great outdoors with a private deck surrounded by juniper and pine forests
- Unwind around the campfire with nightly s'mores and live music
- Sample local produce, premium coffee, and seasonal menus with on-site dining
- Enhance your experience with optional add-ons, including yoga, excursions, and kids' activities
- Benefit from Premium Guest Services for trip planning