Renowned Laguna Beach artist, Steve Adam, translates his passion for coastal living to canvases of all sizes — using a fresh color palette, mixed-media, textures and novel techniques incorporating the conventional and unconventional. The result: Bold, original, and evocative works of art that feel instantly at home in any environment.

Steve is a big supporter of the military, our first responders, and all who serve. This 16"x24" original painting was created specifically for the Taste for the Troops.
