Paris, France

Experience the ultimate Parisian luxury with our five-night package for two, designed for those with a taste for the finer things in life. This experience includes a dinner cruise on the Seine River, where you can enjoy the luxurious views, fine wines, and a delicious 4-course meal that includes starter, main dish, cheese, and dessert. You'll also indulge in a 8-course dinner at Michelin Star restaurant, Auberge Nicolas Flamel. Apart from these, there are plenty of other exciting things to do in Paris, such as visiting the Louvre Museum, taking a stroll through the beautiful gardens of Versailles Palace, exploring the charming streets of Montmartre, and enjoying a croissant at one of the city's famous bakeries.

The Residence

You'll stay in a luxurious four-star hotel in the heart of Paris for five nights, with breakfast included each day. The residence is designed to comfortably accommodate two people, offering plenty of space and privacy for relaxation after a day of exploring the city's iconic landmarks and charming neighborhoods. To ensure a truly seamless experience, a concierge service is available to assist you with any arrangements or reservations you may need during your stay.
